

The Estonian Development Fund team seeks an

INVESTMENT DIVISION DIRECTOR

The ambitious and experienced investment director with the mentality of a statesman will be in charge of supervising the fund's investment strategy being drawn up and executed.

FROM A GOOD CANDIDATE WE EXPECT:

- Considerable work experience in venture capital, investment banking or related areas;
- Knowledge of the European risk capital market;
- At least a Master's degree in Economics or Management;
- Experience in leading, leadership abilities, and social nerve;
- Interest in technology and technological enterprises;
- Fluent English and knowledge of another European language.

TO A GOOD CANDIDATE WE OFFER:

- One of the most interesting and influential jobs in Eastern Europe;
- The opportunity to experience and affect the development of technological enterprises founded in Estonia and the wider region;
- The opportunity to contribute to the development of the regional venture capital market and through that the Estonian economy and the wider region.

Send your application along with a CV, a short letter of motivation, and a salary request by June 11th 2007 to the following address: info@fontes.ee or AS Fontes PMP, "Eesti Arengufond", Tartu mnt. 2, 10145 Tallinn, Estonia.

www.arengufond.ee